One of the pleasant affairs of Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Henry Kleinschmidt entertained for Miss Hazel Dorris, one of the popular brides-to-be. A pleasant afternoon was spent, a dainty luncheon being served later. The afternoon was made most attractive with an abundance of roses.

Miss Barr and Miss Blake, two popular brides of the month, were the complimentary guests at a pretty afternoon by Mrs. Thomas Wise. Dainty refreshments were served, the color scheme of pink and white being beautifully carried out with the assistance of roses.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was a pretty appointed luncheon given by Mrs. J. H. Witbeck in her usual charming manner in honor of Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson. The decorations were beautiful, the pretty table, where covers were laid for thirty, had for a centerpiece a large Florentine lace piece, upon which was a large mirror with a cut glass bowl of beautifully shaded pink La France roses. Cut glass vases of white and pink roses added attractiveness to the table. In the living room and parlor there were tall cut glass vases of rich American beauty roses. A feature of the afternoon was a musical program beautifully given by Mrs. Witbeck's daughters, the Misses Joy and Aleta Witbeck, after which Miss Joy Witbeck gave several interesting recitations. The hostess was assisted by her daughters, and Miss Lillian Wilkinson.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. G. McMillan, 649 East South Temple street, starting at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Dr. Tyndale will have charge, and Mrs. H. J. Dinning will preside. As this is the last meeting of the year it is hoped that there will be a full attendance.

A truly charming affair of the week was the party given Wednesday evening by Miss Hazel Dorris, a bride of the month. About thirty guests were chaperoned by Mrs. Frank C. Moyle, motored down to the Cottonwood farm of James H. Moyle, and before a bonfire told stories and sang songs to their hearts' content, with an elegant country supper to add zest to the entertainment.

WEDDINGS AND ENGAGEMENTS.

Last Wednesday morning the marriage of Miss Fannie Gardiner to Edward George Evans, which took place Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride in the presence of only the immediate families. The ceremony was performed by Judge McMaster. After the ceremony a supper was served to those present at the wedding, and from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock a large informal reception was held. The home was elaborately decorated with roses and American flags, and as this was flag day flags played an important part in the decorations. The dining room was done entirely in pink, a chuney lace centerpiece with a large bowl of pink roses adorning the table. Streamers of pink chiffon extended from the chandelier to the corners and sides of the table, the ends falling to the floor which gave a most pleasing effect. In the parlor the canopy where the ceremony took place was draped with a large flag, while vases of red roses added attractiveness to the mantel and piano. On the porch behind a bank of palms and American flags, Helia orchestra played many beautiful and fitting selections. Punch was served in the hall by the Misses Anne Horne and Katherine Clawson. The bride's gown was a simple white dress, beautifully trimmed with baby Irish lace, the bride carrying a large shower bouquet of white roses. The brother and sister of the bride, Claire and Tyler Gardiner, attended the bride, Miss Claire Gardiner being simply gowned in a white lingerie dress. Mr. Evans, master of the groom, assisted in receiving. Others assisting were Mrs. J. M. Reimsma, Mrs. H. B. Clawson, Jr., and Mrs. W. J. Horne. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Evans will be at home to their friends after July 1 at the home of the bride's father, 27 Ninth East street.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Wednesday night when Miss Teresa Emery and Josephine Young and Ruby Thomson.
